

HAPPY MONDAY

3/15/21

Question of the Week:

What is a GOLDEN moment you have had in your life?

Fun fact actually really really sad fact...

Sometimes leprechauns wear red instead of green and they have a troublesome cousin called the clurichaun

Clurichauns are often seen in stories riding animals at night

“Your life is not about you, your life is about all the people around you. Your life is about all the people you can touch, all the people you can impact, all the people you can influence, all the people you love and all the people that love you. That’s how you source your life. Live your life like that and watch your life change.”
